SUGGESTED BY THE LATE FIGHT.

J. G.—England.

Bruised and bleeding and torn,
With a maimed or a broken limb,
With flabby cheeks and with deep gashed lips,
And eyes black, swollen and dim—
Bruised and bleeding and torn,
Blinded and maddened with pain,
Striving and grappling man to man,
Each like another Cain—
Oh, God! that such a brutal strife as this,
Body and soul should stain.

Bruised and weary and worn,
Gasping—with half-spent breath,
Again they close whilst the watchers press round,
Betting on life and death.
Betting on life and death!
Men of every degree;
Men! nay brutes in human form,
Whosoever they be.
Alas! alas! in a civilized land
Such a barbarous sight to see.

Again and again they rush on,
The battle is lost and won—
Oh, Lord! lay not the sin to their charge,
But to those who have urged them on.
On those who have urged them on,
Men of learning and fame,
Men in the church and men in the world,
Men with a titled name—
Men to whom Thou hast given much,
On them be the shame and blame.

Say, can true courage be taught
To the Christian heathen at home,
By feasting their ignoble natures on sights
That were worthy of our heathen Rome?
Honor to whom honor's due,
Glory and praise to the brave,
Honor to him who will peril his life
The life of another to save.
But none to him who, for fame and gold,
Would drag down his foe to the grave.

Up, up, ye prelates and peers,
Up, ye Parliament men,
And pour your scorn on the cant that says
Prize-fighting makes us men!
Prize-fighting makes us beasts,
Low and degrading its fruits,
Human feelings and manliness
Tearing up by the roots—
We want a nation of manly men,
And not a nation of brutes.

Select Miscellany.

Barnes on the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors.

[Below we publish, by request, a couple of extracts from an argument put forth by Rev. Barnes, of Philadelphia, on the traffic in ardent spirits. We hope that all into whose hands this paper may fall, will take time to read and ponder the statements contained therein.—ED.]

1. It is an employment which tends to counteract the design of the very organization of society. Society is organized on a benevolent principle. The structure of that organization is one of the best adapted instances of design, and of benevolence, anywhere to be found. It is on this principle that a lawful employment—an employment fitted to produce subsistence for a man and his family, will not interfere with the rights and happiness of others. It may be pursued without violating any of their rights, or infringing their happiness in any way Nay, it may not only interfere with their rights and happiness, but it will tend to promote directly their welfare, by promoting the happiness of the whole. Or, for example, the employment of the farmer may be pursued not only without interfering with the rights or privileges of the mechanic, the physician, or the merchant, but it will directly contribute to their welfare, and is indispensable to it. The employment of the physician not only contributes to the support of himself and family, but to the welfare of the community. It not only does not interfere with the rights and happiness of the farmer and the mechanic, but it tends directly to their advantage.—The employment of the merchant in lawful traffic, not only contributes to his support, but is directly beneficial to the whole agricultural community; for, as has been well said, "the merchant is the friend of mankind." He injures no man, at the same time that he benefits himself; and he contributes to the welfare of the community by promoting a healthful and desirable exchange of commodities in different parts of the land, and of various natures. The same is true of the mechanic, the mariner, the schoolmaster, the legislator, the book-maker, the day-laborer, the schoolmaster, the lawyer, the clergyman.

Now we maintain that the traffic in ardent spirits, as a drink, is a violation of this wise arrangement. It tends to sap the foundation of the whole economy. It is solely to benefit the trafficker, and it tends to evil, evil only, evil continually. If every man should act on this principle, society could not exist. If every man should choose an employment that should necessarily and always interfere with the peace, and happiness, and morals of others, it would at once break up the organization. If every manufacturer should erect a manufactory, as numerous as our distilleries and dram-shops, that should necessarily blight every farm, and produce sterility in its neighborhood, every farmer would regard it as an unlawful employment; and if pursued, the business of agriculture would end. If a physician could live only by diffusing disease and death, who would regard his as a moral employment? If a mariner could pursue his business from this port to Calcutta or Canton, only by importing the plague in every return voyage, who would deem it an honorable employment? If an apothecary could pursue his business only by killing nine persons out of ten of those with whom he had dealing, who would deem it a lawful business? If a man can get a living in his employment only by fitting out a privateer and preying upon the peaceful commerce of the world, who will deem it a lawful employment? If a man lives only to make a descent on the peaceful abodes of Africa, and to tear away parents from their weeping children, and husbands from their wives and homes, where is the man that will deem it a moral business? And why not? Does he not act on the same principle as the man who deals in ardent spirits—a desire to make money, and that only? The truth is, that in all these cases there would be a violation of the great fundamental law on which men must agree to live together in society—a violation of that great, noble, and benevolent law of our organization, by which an honest employment interferes with no other, but may tend to diffuse blessings in the whole circle of human engagements. And the traffic in ardent spirits is just as much a violation of this law, as in any of the cases specified.

2. Every man is bound to pursue such a business as to render a valuable consideration for that which he receives from others. A man who receives in trade the avails of the industry of others, is under obligation to restore that which will be of real value. He receives the fruit of toil; he receives that which is of value to himself; and common equity requires that he return a valuable consideration. Thus the merchant renders to the farmer, in exchange for the growth of his farm, the productions of other climes; the manufacturer, that which is needful for the clothing or comfort of the agriculturist; the physician, the result of his professional skill. All these are valuable considerations, which are fair and honorable subjects of exchange. They are a mutual accommodation; they advance the interest of both parties. But it is not so with the dealer in ardent spirits. He obtains the property of his fellow-men, and what does he return? That which tend to promote their real welfare? That which will make him a happier man? That which will benefit his family? That which diffuses learning and domestic comfort around his family circle? None of these things.—He gives him that which will produce poverty, and want, and cursing, and tears, and death. He asked an egg, and he receives a scorpion. He gives him that which is established and well known as the source of no good, but as tending to produce beggary and wretchedness. Now if this were practised in any other business, it would be open fraud. If in any way you could palm upon a farmer that which is not only worthless, but mischievous—that which would certainly tend to ruin him and his family, could there be any doubt about the nature of this employment? It makes no difference here, that the man supposes that it is for his good; or that he applies for it. You know that it is not for his benefit, and you know—what is the only material point under this head—that it will tend to his ruin. Whatever he may think about it, or whatever he may desire, you are well advised that it is an article that will tend to sap the foundation of his morals and happiness, and conduce to the ruin of his estate, and his body, and his soul; and you know, therefore, that you are not rendering him any valuable consideration for his property.—The dealer may look on his gains in this matter—on his houses, or mortgages, or lands, obtained as the result of his business—with something like these reflections:—

"This property has been gained from other men. It was theirs, honestly acquired, and was necessary to promote their happiness and the happiness of their families. It has become mine by a traffic which has not only taken it away from them, but which has ruined their peace, corrupted their morals, sent wo and discord into their families, and consigned them perhaps to an early and most loathsome grave. This property has come from the hard earnings of other men; has passed into my hands without any valuable compensation rendered; but has been obtained only while I have been diffusing want and wo, and death through their abodes."

Let the men engaged in this traffic look upon their property thus gained; let them survey the wo which has attended it; and then ask, as honest men, whether it is a moral employment.

☞ Soon after the battle at Lepsic, a wit observed:—Bonaparte must now be in funds, as he received a check on the bank of the Elbe."

☞ The Masonic orders in the United States now embrace 4,792 lodges and 195,170 members.

PUNISHMENT FOR ARSON.

The revised penal code, passed by the Legislature the present year, denounces heavy penalties for the crime of arson.—The punishment under the new code is severe, but not more so than such an atrocious crime deserves. We copy the law relative to incendiarism, as it stands now:—

"If any person shall maliciously and voluntarily burn or cause to be burned, or set fire, or cause, or attempt to set fire to, with intent to burn any factory, mill or dwelling-house of another, or any kitchen, shop, barn, stable or out-house that is parcel of such dwelling, or belonging, or adjoining thereto, or any other building by means whereof a dwelling-house shall be burnt, then, and in every such case, the person so offending shall be adjudged guilty of felonious arson, and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement, at labor, not exceeding twelve years; and in case of the malicious burning or setting fire to any dwelling-house, or building that is parcel of such dwelling or belonging thereto, there is any person in the same, the offender being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding four thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, at separate or solitary confinement, not exceeding twenty years.

If any person shall wilfully and maliciously burn, or caused to be burned, set fire to, or attempt to set fire to, with intent to burn, or aid, counsel, procure or consent to the burning or setting fire to, of any barn, stable or other building of another, not parcel of the dwelling-house, or any shop, sterehouse or warehouse, malthouse, mill or other building of another, or any barrack, rick or stack of grain hay, fodder or bark, piles of wood, boards or other lumber, or any ship, boat or other vessel of another lying within any county in this State, or any wooden bridge within the same, or State capitol or adjoining offices, or any church, meeting house, court house, jail or other public building belonging to this Commonwealth, or to any city or county thereof, or to any body corporate or religious society whatever, the person offending shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding ten years.

Every person being the owner of any ship, boat or other vessel, or the owner, tenant, or occupant of any house, out-house, office, store, shop, warehouse, mill, distillery, brewery or manufactory, barn or stable, or any other building, who shall wilfully burn or set fire thereto, with intention to burn the same, with an intention thereby to defraud or prejudice any person, or body politic or corporate, that hath underwritten or shall underwrite any policy of insurance thereon, or any moneys, goods, wares or merchandise therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, by separate or solitary confinement at labor, not exceeding seven years.

"POWERFUL" MEAN.—The steamer Sultana, commanded by Captain S., exploded several years ago with terrible effect, and burned to the water's edge. Captain S. was blown into the air, alighting near a floating cotton bale, upon which he floated uninjured, but much blakened and muddied. Arrived at a village several miles below, to which the news of the disaster had preceded him, he was accosted by the editor of the village paper, with whom he was well acquainted, and who was eager for an item:

"I say, boy, is the Sultana blown up?"

"Yes."

"Was Captain S. killed?"

"No—I am Captain S."

"The devil you are! How high were you blown?"

"High enough to think of every mean thing I ever did in my life before I came down."

The editor started on a run for his office; the paper was about going to press, and not wishing to omit the item of intelligence for the next issue, two weeks off, he wrote as follows:—

"The steamer Sultana has burst her boiler, we learn from Captain S., who says he was up long enough to think of every mean thing he ever did in his life before he lit. We suppose he was up about three months."

☞ An Arabian, who brough a blush to a maiden's cheeks by the earnestness of his gaze, said to her:—"My looks have planted roses into your cheeks; why forbid me to gather them? The law permits him who sows to reap the harvest."

☞ Man is like a snow ball. Leave him lying in idleness against the sunny face of prosperity, and all that's good in him melts like butter, but kick him around and he gathers strength with each revolution, until he grows into an avalanche.

The Census of 1860.

The following excellent take off on the questions proposed to be asked by the takers of the Census of 1860, has been variously credited to the Buffalo Express and the Cleveland Plaindealer. Without attempting to settle the question to paternity, we present it as we find it:

What is your age?

Where were you born?

Are you married, and if so, how do you like it?

How many children have you, and do they sufficiently resemble you as to preclude the possibility of their belonging to any of your neighbors?

Did you ever have the measels, and if so, how many?

Have you a twin brother several years older than yourself?

Have you parents, and if so, how many of them?

Do you read the New Testament regularly.

What is your fighting weight?

How many times has your wife "wished she was dead," and did you reciprocate the wish?

Do you use boughten tobacco.

Were you and your wife worth anything when married, and if not what proportion of her things were your'n and your things were her'n?

Were you ever in the penitentiary?

Are you troubled with biles?

How many empty bottles have you in the house?

How does your meerschaum color.

Have you all of Thayer's speeches on the horse railroad?

Are beans an article of regular diet in your family, and if so, how does it go?

State whether you are blind, deaf, idiotic, or have the heaves?

How many chickens have you, and are they on foot or in the shell?

Is there a strawberry mark on your left arm?

Which food do you prefer rum or mixed drinks?

State how much pork, dutch cheese, impending crises, popular sovereignty, standard poetry, Gayety paper, slave code, catnip, red flannel, Constitution and Union, old junk, perfumery, coal oil, liberty, hoop skirt, &c, you have on hand.

Persons liable to be "censused," will do well to cut the above out and put it up in a conspicuous place.

HOW TO RUIN A SON.—1. Let him have his own way.

2. Allow him the free use of money.

3. Suffer him to roam where he pleases on the Sabbath.

4. Give him free access to wicked companions.

5. Call him to no account for his evenings.

6. Furnish him with no stated employment.

Pursue either of these ways and you will experience a most marvelous deliverance, or you will have to mourn over a debased and ruined child. Thousands have realized this sad result, and gone mourning to the grave.

PROVERBS WORTH PRESERVING.—Hasty people drink the wine of life scalding hot. Death is the only master who takes his servants without a character.—Content is the mother of good digestion. When pride and poverty marry together, their children are want and crime. When hard work kills ten, idleness kills a hundred men. Folly and pride walk side by side. He that borrows binds himself with with his neighbor's rope. He that is too good for good advice, is too good for his neighbor's company. Friends and photographs never flatter. Wisdom is always at home to those who call. The firmest friends ask the fewest favors.

☞ A Western editor thus concludes his exciting tale:—"He soon unfolded his sad tale to his friend, and finally consented to live if Henry would give him a chew of tobacco. He returned to the house; and in his haggard countenance, Jane saw his unhappy condition. He never got over it, though About twenty years after, he fell from a wagon, and his neck was broken, for a sheriff had carelessly slipped a rope around it.

☞ Herr Blitz selected from the audience a bright little boy to assist him in his experiments. "Sir," said he, "do you think I could put the soverign which the lady holds, into your pocket?"

"No," said the boy, confidently.

"Think not?"

"I know you couldn't."

"Why?"

"Cause the pocket is torn out!"

☞ Dr. Holland describes a certain dismal class of people—the grumblers—as "sitting on the north side of the tree of life, and peeling rotten apples with a rusty knife."

☞ "I say Pat, what are you about—sweeping out that room?" "No," answered Pat, "I am sweeping the dirt, and leaving the room."

A Desperate Battle.—From St. Joseph, Mo., we learn that a company of 105 men in the Washoe settlement, under the command of Maj. Ormsby, went in pursuit of the Indians who had murdered some whites at Miller's station. They came upon the Indians, numbering 500, and well armed, at a narrow pass sixty five miles from Virginia city. The Indians reopened a fire on the troops from behind the rocks and bushes, doing damage without suffering much in return.—This lasted two hours, when the ammunition of the Ormsby party gave out, and the Indians closed upon them killing many on the spot. The balance retreated in all directions. The number of slain will probably reach fifty. Maj. Ormsby was among the slain. Only thirty-eight of the party reached Virginia city. The news of the battle caused great excitement in California, and companies were leaving for the Washoe country to chastise the Indians.

Gift Books.—We have just received from G. G. Evans, the originator of the Gift Book business, in Philadelphia, copies of the "Life and Adventures of Gen. Sam Houston," and the "Life of the Empress Josephine." The books are executed in excellent style, and can not be sold at retail at less than Mr. Evans asks for them, but with each he gives a gift worth from 50 cents up to $100.—The books are, in themselves, worth much more than the price asked for them, being the biography of two persons of world-wide reputation, whose lives exhibit a vicissitude of fortunes seldom met with, and a heroism at all times truly praiseworthy. Price of the books $1,00 each, with a gift. Address G. G. Evans, No. 439 Chestnut st., Philadelphia. We must here bear testimony to the punctuality and fair dealing of Mr. Evans in all his business transactions with us; and we believe he will be as punctual and fair with all who deal with him in the book line.

The Cattle Disease.—A disease known as pleuro-pneumonia, a lung disease, which for the last year has proved so fatal among the herds of Massachusetts, has, we are sorry to say, broken out among the cattle of New Jersey, and the lower counties of this State. One farmer in Bucks county has lost all of his best stock by this disease. The Commissioners of Massachusetts have killed over 1000 head of cattle, at an appraisal of $20,000, to ascertain, if possible, the cause of the disease and discover a cure. Those who have carefully studied this distemper consider it contagious but not infectious, that is to say, that the disease is communicated by actual contact, but not by any morbific influence carried in the air.

It is to be hoped that this destructive malady may not obtain a permanent foothold in this State, as thereby the hopes and fortunes of many of our most thrifty farmers would be blasted. It is said that the disease was brought by cattle from Massachusetts sold in the New York market and purchased by Jerseymen. Persons purchasing cattle should be careful to know where they came from and avoid all from the part of the country where the disease has broken out.

☞ The London Quarterly Review for April has been received. It contains an excellent budget of reading matter, among the contents of which we note an article on "The Bar of Philadelphia—Washington's Farewell Address," "Miss Nightingale's Notes on Nursing," "Fox Hunting," and other interesting articles. All the British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine are republished by Leonard Scott & Co., at 76 Fulton st., New York, at the low price of $3,00 per annum for each work, or any two of the works for $5,00 or all of the works (five) for $10,000.

Terrible Tornado.

A terrible storm passed over the Eastern part of Iowa and the Northwest part of Ill., on Sunday evening last, entirely destroying the towns of Camanche, Iowa, and Albany, Ill. The total amount of damage done has not yet been fully ascertained, but is supposed to be beyond anything ever heard of. In the town of Camanche 30 dead bodies have been taken from the ruins and there is still a number that can not be got at. It is supposed that not less than 60 lives have been lost. The storm occurred at 7½ o'clock in the evening and lasted only 2½ minutes.

☞ "The Farmer and Gardener" for June is on our table, and as usual, is filled to overflowing with choice matter and handsome illustrations. The publisher announces important changes in the July number. The form will be changed to a royal octavo of 32 pages; and the editorial charge of the Horticultural Department will be assumed by William Saunders, the distinguished writer. In addition to this, a large number of the ablest writers on Agriculture in the country, have consented to contribute to the pages of the "Farmer and Gardener."—With these great attractions, it will be one of the best, as it is now one of the handsomest and cheapest, publications in the country. Persons desirous of examining the new work, can procure a copy without charge, by addressing the Puolisher

A. M. SPANGLER,
Philadelphia.

States Union Hotel.—James W. Power, the popular proprietor of the above Hotel, situate on Market st., between 6th and 7th sts., Philadelphia, has associated with him James Boon, of Lancaster, in the proprietorship, and the patrons of the house will now receive more attention to their comforts than it was possible for one man to bestow. This Hotel is one of the most eligibly located in the city for business men, being in the very heart of the business portion. The terms have been reduced to $1,25 per day without any diminution in accommodation. The merchant, man of business, or pleasure, who stops once at the States Union will be sure to call again. Having tried the house we can recommend it to all as one of the best managed and most comfortable stopping places in the city.

☞ We beg pardon of Bennett for not noticing the receipt of his Dollar Monthly, for May, which arrived on time. As an evidence of the prosperity of this neat little work we are pleased to learn that it has already attained a circulation of 10,000 copies, and it is destined to run much higher. Bennett can get up a good Magazine and will do it. Price $1,00 per annum. Bennett & Hamlin, Philadelphia.

☞ Lincoln rails are said to be selling at $5 each, in the West. If "old Uncle Abe" would go to work and split rails for a few months he would make more money than by electioneering for President.

☞ A horrible tragedy was enacted in Franklin county, on Sunday night. An old man, named Mason, had a son, who, for some time, has been taking such of the old man's property as he desired, and could get hold of. Only the last week he took a horse and some other articles, and on Sunday night demanded the old man's money, and threatened to take his life if it was not given to him. The old man told him he was old, and needed all he had to support himself and wife, and ordered him to go away. It seems the son had not been permitted to enter the house on this occasion, but broke the door to effect an entrance, and as he entered was shot down by his father and died in a few minutes. The old man, on Monday morning, had gone to procure a coffin for his son, and to surrender himself to an officer of the law.

☞ George Wilkes, in a letter to his paper, the Spirit of the Times, gives it as his decided opinion, that Heenan can whip two such men as Sayers in one day, and that the fact would have been unequivocally demonstrated, but that Jack Macdonald had bet two or three hundred dollars that the fight would last over an hour, and constantly checked the impetuosity of Heenan, and that when finally, at the remonstrance of Mr. Wilkes himself, Heenan did "let loose" upon him, his superiority was at once put beyond all reasonable doubt.

A Prisoner Shot.—On Monday last three prisoners, confined in the jail at Rome, N. Y., made a rush upon the jailor with a view to escape. The officer, however, drew a revolver and shot a fellow named Brockway, a horse stealer, through the body, whereupon the other two submitted to be put back to their cells. The wounded man, it is thought, will recover.

A Stiff One.—Thursday's Wheeling Times is responsible for the following whopper: A hailstone, the largest of which we have heard in this section, was yesterday picked up on Market street immediately after the storm of the forenoon. Its precise weight we did not learn, but its dimensions were such as to render it barely possible to crowd it into the open head of a medium sized beer cask. It was of a five cornered star shape.

A Japanese Dispatch Home.

Although our Washington correspondent has been unable thus far to obtain any copies of the Japanese despatches to their Government, a gentleman of this city has been fortunate enough to obtain the sight of a friendly letter of one of the Commissioners to an acquaintance in Niphon. Under a promise to conceal the name of the writer, he has been authorized to publish it, and has kindly placed it in our hands. We insert it below.—Phila. Inquirer.

From the Sacred City of Washington

Most Esteemed Hakodadi:—We have been invited to visit next in order the great city of Phi-la-del-phia, or "the place consecrated to fraternal affection," the capitol of the province which is the birthplace of the American Tycoon. Our reception, we are informed, will be attended with the most august ceremonies that the city ever offers to its most distinguished guests. The Councilmen, after examining our credentials, have decided to place us on a footing with "the most favored" foreign Fire Companies.

All the military of the Province, ordinarily engaged in other avocations, will be in arms. This will enable us to report, from our own observation, upon the extent of the military power of this vast country. Do not fear that this large display will induce us to act otherwise than becomes the dignity of our nation; for although we have in our whole empire but 480,000 soldiers, they are fully equal to maintain our security, armed with two swords and entire devotion. There will also be a great exhibition of "squirts" on our arrival. These, it seems, are generally prominent on all such occasions, and have quite a notoriety here.

The details of our reception by the American Tycoon you have in my former letter. He is called, not Tycoon, but President; sometimes, however, by a strange analogy of language, "old coon." At first I thought this an attempt to pronounce our Japanese phrase, but am assured that it is strictly idiomatic, and implies astuteness and age. It certainly seemed applicable to the head of the nation who received us.

We find it very difficult to comply with the demands of our sovereign, forbidding us to touch the women of this country.—Not from any disposition on our part to disobey, but from their desire to seize us by our hands. They are apparently allowed here the greatest freedom, but it is only in appearance. Every woman, married or single, is fastened in a cage of bamboo or flexible steel, extending from the waist to the feet. This seems to be so arranged as to give them no uneasiness, but they are very much ashamed of it, and conceal it under so many coverings that it renders their appearance quite ludicrous. They are unrestricted as to the upper part of their persons, which they are permitted to expose as much as they wish. This they seem to avail themselves of, and on all occasions of high ceremony, wear very low dresses. As in all barbarous nations, they slit their ears and suspend from them ornaments of gold and silver. They also paint and powder themselves, and after greasing their hair, twist it into fantastic shapes and fasten it up with long pins and combs. Some of them would be fine-looking, if they did not disfigure themselves by the hideous and vulgar custom of wearing eyebrows and keeping their teeth white. Be assured, therefore, that we are in no danger of being captivated by their appearance; we feel nothing but regret that the barbarous and absurd customs of man should thus destroy the charms which cultivation and refinement would so much improve.

Nothing strikes us so much as the want of respect these barbarians show even to their highest dignitaries; they never hesitate to spit before them, and it requires considerable activity to prevent being spat upon at all times. The custom of wearing one sword, it seems, originated from this cause, as it enables you to avoid with greater facility the saliva of your neighbor. Chewing tobacco is much prized, it seems, from the saliva it produces, which is preserved, when possible, in handsome vases of porcelain, and placed in prominent positions. None of the inhabitants do reverence by crawling on their bellies, except after the election of a new Tycoon, when those in search of office come to the central city and perform that ceremony. Those who are fortunate enough to meet with honor from the Tycoon seldom walk uprightly during their whole term of office. The unfortunate applicants become at once censors or spies upon the others, and their silence has to be bought at a high price. All public servants have their price, which rises or falls according to the necessities of the Tycoon. But I shall reserve my reflections on political topics till I have another opportunity to address you. Until then rest in peace.

A Witty Jail Bird.—A short time ago a man named Crandall made his escape from the Angelica county, N. Y. jail. For the information of the curious, he has lately written back to Angelica, the following account of his escape. It must be very satisfactory to his late custodians.—He says:—

"I suppose it is a mystery to some how I got away, consequently I will give you a brief history of my departure. The modus operandi was this:—I got out of my cell with ingenuity, ran up stairs with agility, crawled out of the back window in secresy, slid down the lightning rod with rapidity, walked out of the Angelic town with dignity, and am now basking in the sunshine of pleasure and liberty.

☞ Flora Armstrong, a colored woman, died at the County House, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last week aged, 110. She was born in 1750. Last summer she enjoyed good health, and supported herself by gathering herbs.

Frightful Tornado in Clarion County.

An extra of the Clarion Banner brings us the intelligence of the terrible tornado which swept over a large district in that county on Wednesday last, and a brief notice of which we have already given our reader. About noon, writes our cotemporary, a heavy black cloud was seen advancing about thirty rods south of St. Charles Furnace. An awful roaring sound accompanied it, and passing on to the farm of a Mr. Shoemaker, it burst with terrible fury, tearing his house and barn into fragments and breaking one of his legs; the dwelling of Mr. Thomas Dougherty was next struck, and which was blown to pieces, the furniture broken to atoms, and his daughter killed; next the house of McConnel Henry was blown down and his wife seriously hurt. The barn of Jos. Smith was completely wrecked. The house of Mr. Charles Stewart, three-quarters of a mile north of New Bethlehem, was blown down and his wife killed, and other members of the family injured. The storm, in passing through Hessville, destroyed the tavern of Nathan Hane, and killed his daughter. In passing north of Millville, the storm destroyed the barns of Jabob Hartzell, John and Samuel Shick, the house of John Mohney was blown to pieces and his wife carried away, and, up to twelve o'clock that night, no traces of her had been found.

In its course the storm did not strike either Millville or New Bethlehem, but beyond the former place it struck the village of Hessville. In this place where a number of dwellings, brick, frame and log, and also a large grist mill, and a substantial bridge, spanning Redbank; every house, barn, mill, bridge, and store of Irvin McFarland were destroyed and four lives lost. Among the killed were the wives of Irvin McFarland and Mr. Hess. A terrible hail-storm passed through a portion of Porter and Redbank townships which in its course did immense damage. Besides destroying every fence in its track, fields of grain were badly injured, and as a matter of course, being left open, the cattle got in and committed still further ravages. Taken altogether, an immense amount of damage has been sustained in the townships of Porter and Redbank, and the Banner thinks it will take $100,000 to cover the loss.

☞ John Iverson was recently arrested and imprisoned at the South for aggravated polygamy; he had thirteen wives.—The daughter of the jailor whose hospitality this insatiable polygamist was enjoying while awaiting his trial, believed him innocent, pitied him, loved him, opened the prison doors, fled with him, and became his fourteenth wife. After eight days of domestic bliss the husband disappeared, and left neither trace nor money behind. A reward was offered for his capture; a description of his fascinating person was circulated, he was recognized in a village tavern by a man who thought of the reward offered, and set about preparing his foils for the victim. In order to instil confidence into his breast, he made his acquaintance, invited him to his mansion, and then went off to procure legal assistance. When he returned, his home was deserted alike of his intended prey and his wife.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ A desirable companion these days—an umbrella.

☞ Hon. W. H. Seward has again returned to Washington.

☞ The Rev. Theodore Parker, of Boston, is dead, having died at Florence.

☞ The service pipe for filling the gas receivers on the passenger cars on the Penn'a R. R., are now being laid at the Gas Works in this place.

☞ In France only one traveler is killed out of every two nations of passengers on the railroads, and only one wounded on every 500,000.

☞ Every pound of cochineal contains 70,000 insects, boiled to death; 700,000 pounds are annually used for scarlet and crimson dyes.

☞ The Petersburg (Va.) Intelligencer says that the debt of Virginia amounts to $48,000,000, with no prospect of diminution.

☞ The Baltimore Turnzeitung, the Central organ of the German Turner Band of the United States, has declared in favor of Lincoln for President.

☞ The Alleghenian, Ebensburg, says that game of all kinds, and especially squirrels, are very plenty in Cambria county this season. This will be good news to the sportsmen.

☞ The following return was made by the Sheriff of a county in Virginia, upon a capias:—"Was seen, but not arrested; was caught, but not held; was shot at, but not hit."

☞ Strawberries promise to be very plenty this season, and it is thought they will be so cheap that printers and other people can buy them. This luscious fruit is selling in Baltimore for four cents a box.

☞ The Clarion papers are filled with details of the late terrible tornado in that county. Ten lives altogether were lost, some thirty people injured, and property to the amount of $150,000 destroyed.

☞ The last Shirleysburg Herald says that a fight recently came off, at the north-west base of Black Log mountain, between a fox and a raccoon, which resulted in the death of both the combatants.

☞ The Loretto Springs House, under the charge of Major Brady, of Harrisburg, and the Cresson House, under the charge of W. S. Campbell, of Philadelphia, will be opened for visitors on the 15th of the present month.

☞ Gerrit Smith writes a long letter to prove that his recent aberration of mind was owing entirely to dyspepsia and the New York Democratic Vigilant Association! He does not even hint that he was afraid of Gov. Wise.

☞ We notice the census taker dodging around with his book on his arm. We hope all of our citizens will give Mac correct answers, as we know he will treat all in a gentlemanly manner.

☞ A young lady of Lowell, Mass., recently left that place in company with a sister to go over a thousand miles to marry a man whom she had never seen, but with whom she had become acquainted through the medium of correspondence.

☞ Are we going to have a Fourth of July?—Harrisburg Pat. and Union.

Most certainly, gentlemen. We have heard nothing to the contrary. We intend to have it up here at the proper time, and should there be any of it left, will send it down to you by the Express Train in the evening.

☞ Our friend, J. H. Dysart, the gentlemanly agent of the P. R. R. Co., at this place, and his lady, left town a day or two since, on a trip to the Western country. We wish them a sight of all the sights to be seen, good health and fair weather to enjoy them, and a safe return to their home.

☞ "A woman," says an exchange, "should never, under any circumstances whatever lose her temper." Might as well tell the winds not to blow on a March day, or the rain not to come down in April. It does them good to "explode" occasionally. A woman, to be good for anything, must have as much spice and sparkle in her as a bottle of champagne, and if the cork comes out once in a while with a bang, that dont depreciate the value of the goods.

☞ The Methodist Conference, now in session at Buffalo, N. Y., have resolved that the marriage relation can only be dissolved by a violation of the seventh commandment, or by death, and that a subsequent marriage, by either party, while both are living, is contrary to the teachings of the Holy Scriptures.

☞ Joseph H. Simpson "The Village Blacksmith" of Plesses, Jefferson county, N. Y., excited to a pitch of emulation by the feat of a Troy blacksmith in making 240 horse shoes in ten hours, turned out on the 12th inst., in the short space of eight hours, two hundred and forty-three medium sized horse shoes.

☞ At St. Clair, Michigan, the other day, a dentist was called to serve as a juryman in a case pending before a Justice of the Peace. During the afternoon some ladies came over from Canada to have their aching teeth pulled. The court very obligingly adjourned till night, to allow the dentist to relieve the ladies.

☞ The President has at last decided that he will not spend any time during the coming summer at his favorite resort, Bedford Springs. He is hesitating whether he shall remain at the "Soldier's Home," or accept the invitation of Gov. Letcher, of Virginia, to enjoy a few week's relaxation at the White Sulpher Springs, in that State.

☞ The Harper's Ferry Committee have had several meetings lately, with a view of bringing their labors to a close. They will probably notify the Senate in a few days that they have finished the examination of witnesses—at least all they can get before them, and will probably recommend that Hyatt, who is still in jail, be discharged.

☞ The Great Eastern steamship is to leave England for New York on the 9th of June, and will remain some time in that port, to afford opportunities to visitors. The people of Portland, Me., are very indignant at the change in her destination, as they had made some costly preparations for her proper accommodation in that port.

☞ Drop in at Taylor's Saloon, next door to the Bank, if you wish a fresh Pine Apple, a mellow Orange, a sound Lemon, a good drink of ice-cool Sarsaparilla, Mineral Water, Mead, &c., a stock of choice Confectionerics, a superior Segar or plug of Tobacco, an excellent cake, or pie, or one of the best Saucers of Ice Cream to be had in the State.

☞ Mr. Nunemacher, Senator from Berks, died at his residence in that county on Monday last. His health was feeble at the commencement of the last session, and he was obliged to return long before the adjournment. The term for which he was elected does not expire until next year, so his death creates a vacancy to be filled at the fall election.

☞ Letters received from Heenan, by the Arabia, state that himself, Wilkes, editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, and Billy Mulligan, will arrive in New York in the Africa, due on Wednesday or Thursday of this week. He makes no allusion to the reports that Sayers was to accompany him, for the purpose of giving exhibitions in this country.

☞ A teamster named Thomas Dowling, on Tuesday last at Troy, N. Y., seized hold of the tongue of one of his horses for the purpose of making him draw, and in the attempt pulled nearly the entire tongue out of the animal.—The brutal act created a general sensation of horror, though the human brute was permitted to escape unpunished.

☞ New mode of Preserving Apples.—Mr. E. E. Bailey, of Claremont, N. H., took a keg full of apples, last fall, which he securely headed up, and sunk to the bottom of a deep mill pond. On bringing them to the surface a few days ago, every apple was found to be quite free from speck or rot, and as sound and unwrinkled as when taken from the tree.

☞ The Cincinnati Enquirer says that the storm which recently swept through the valley of the Ohio, was only about two hours going from Louisville to Portsmouth, a distance by an air line of 160 miles. When it is borne in mind that the storm pursued the sinuosities of the river, it will be seen that its speed was greatly beyond that of the fastest locomotive ever run.

☞ The Washington Star, of the 31st ultimo, says:—"The damage done to Judge Douglas' house by the storm, on Saturday afternoon, was very great. The tin roof having been blown off, the rain, which was pouring down in torrents, damaged nearly every room in the house. Elegant carpets, furniture, painting, etc., were completely ruined. The matter was made worse, owing to the fact that Judge Douglas is lying very ill with a throat disease."

☞ Putrid Sore Throat.—This singular and fatal disease has desolated many households in various parts of the State. In Conewago township, York county, five persons have died in one family, and two others are now down with the disease. Another family buried ten of its members within a short time. The disease attacks adults and children alike, and is attended with an alarming degree of fatality. We sincerely hope the terrible malady will not make its appearance here.

☞ Poetry and Patriotism.—One editor, of a fancy turn of mind, having remarked that "Washington guided the tottering steps of the infant Republic along the path of Empire"—a cotemporary adds:

So he did. And more; he made the little codger toe the crack of progress: he cuffed him along the trail of safety; he kicked him clear over the pools of peril; and by the cuff of the neck dragged him howling up the hill of greatness. It will be seen that we can talk in figures as well as our neighbor.

☞ At the battle of Buena Vista, one of the regiments of General Joe Lane's brigade was exposed to a heavy fire of cannon shot, and the men were observed to waver occasionally as a ball whizzed by the column. The old General seeing this, called out, "Indiana Regiment, no dodging!" Just then a heavy shot flew by, sending hot breath right into Lane's face, when he involuntarily ducked his head, at which his men began to titter. But the old fellow instantly recovering his composure, shouted out, "Indiana Regiment, dodge the big ones!"

BLOOD FOOD! BLOOD FOOD!

We have varied feelings in reading the advertisement of Dr. Bronson's Blood Food, in another column; but we think gratification predominates; for, though we regret to see so celebrated a man coming forward, even in appearance, under the same flag as quacks—that is, by resorting to advertising—yet we take satisfaction also in knowing that there is now a reliable preparation before the people for that most melancholy and fatal disease—Consumption, and other organic complaints.

Dr. Bronson is a lecturer in our Medical Colleges, and his success in his speciality has been so wonderful that he has consented, at variance with the prejudices of every regular practitioner, to make it known, as he is doing, for the benefit of suffering humanity.

He has secured for Agents, however, a firm whose respectability separates entirely his preparations from all tinge of quackery. Messrs. Church & Dupont are his sole managers, as they are also for that most invaluable of preparations, Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial. If mothers could know the great care taken in putting up this article—some idea of which they can form by comparison of it with any other article of the kind—they would prefer it to anything that has ever been offered them. For our own part, if we had a child suffering, we would not hesitate to administer this preparation, knowing that such careful druggists would not engage in anything that was not perfectly safe and ineffectual.—Quebec Gazette.

It is wisely provided by the human economy, that whenever anything is wrong in the human system, the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of Dr. J. Hostetter's Bitters, which operate to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effects of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, are prompt and decisive. The patient who is wise enough to quit drugging, and try the Bitters, soons feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. Let all from whose cheek the bloom of health has departed, give Dr. J. Hostetter's Bitters a trial. Sold by druggists and dealers, generally, everywhere.

☞ "Oh that the skin of an innocent sheep should be made into parchment, and written on to the undoing of a man!" quoth Shakspeare. He might also have deplored the ruining of men's forms by the uncouth manner in which some ungracious tailors butcher up the cloth made from the wool grown by these same harmless sheep. To see the perfection of the art of working up cloth wisely and well, and so as to set off to the best advantage the forms of its wearers, call at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut St. above Sixth, Phila. and examine their stock of garments for gentlemen and youths.

TOOTHACHE.

This disease can be cured by Dr. Keyser's Toothache Remedy, prepared by him in Pittsburg, Pa., which is put up in bottles and sold at 25 cents each. It is an excellent medicine, when diluted, for spongy and tender gums, and is worth ten times its price to all who need it. Sold here by G. W. Kessler, Druggist.

STILL IN THE FIELD!

Having understood that the report is being circulated that I had quit the BUTCHERING BUSINESS in Altoona, I take this method of informing my old customers and the public generally that I am still carrying on business at my old stand, where I am prepared to serve one and all with BEEF, VEAL, PORK, MUTTON, SAUSAGES, PUDDINGS, &c., equal, if not superior, to any in the market. I have made arrangements for procuring the very best of stock with which to furnish the market, an abundant supply of which will always be kept on hand to meet the wants of the public. Those in want of anything in the meat way are respectfully invited to call at the old stand.

CAUTION AND REWARD.—The undersigned has good reason to believe that certain persons are in the habit of using and counterfeiting his "BRAND or TRADE MARK," used by him on his "Crystal Spring Mills Flour."

This, therefore, is to give notice that I will prosecute to the full extent of the law, all persons so doing; and further will pay a reward of five dollars for any information that will lead to the conviction of such persons.

LOCAL ITEMS.

IMPROVEMENTS.—We have sometimes thought that we would publish a list of the improvements being made in this place, in the way of new buildings, &c., and have taken an observation of the town for the purpose; but each time we have observed a number of buildings in course of erection, and thought we would defer our notice until they were completed. By the time they were finished, however, as many more would be about as far advanced as the others were when we were around before, and consequently we would defer our notice again. We have now came to the conclusion that we can not keep up with the improvements in building, and notice each one seperately, as houses are going up all around us every day, there has been more houses put up this spring than any previous one. Some of our citizens will hardly believe this, but if they do not, all we ask of them is to take a walk around town and count the houses, and if they do not find it so, we'll stand treat. The best part of the matter is that nearly all of the houses put up are of a good size, well finished, and ornaments to the town. Should this state of prosperity continue, Altoona will be a city in five years.

Notwithstanding the number of buildings that have been erected, it is harder for renters to obtain a house to-day than it was five years ago, and then it was considered next to impossible.

TIGHT ROPE PERFORMANCE.—On Saturday evening last, a tight-rope walker named Nagle, gave the citizens of this place an exhibition of his agility and daring. His rope was stretched from the attic window of Shultz's Hall to the top of a house 100 feet distant. At the appointed time, between six and seven o'clock, he appeared on the top of the house, dressed like a circus performer, and went through a number of daring feats, much to the satisfaction of the large crowd which had collected to witness them. A rather amusing incident occurred just as the professor emerged from the trap door in the roof. A number of the ladies who were standing on the vacant lots and about the doors of the houses on Virginia street, which was to the eastward of the rope, let out a little shriek and pulled their bonnets over their eyes.—Of course we attributed their seeming agitation to nervousness, but we afterwards found out our mistake. The ladies had never before seen a man dressed in "tights," a la circus, and thought he was naked. We then appreciated their situation and the cause of their trepidation. On being informed that they were in error they consented to look up again.

NEW INVENTION.—A few evenings since we were shown an invention got up by our townsman, James Widney, styled a self-adjusting car coupling, which is designed to avoid the necessity of going between the cars to couple them when they are run together, the dangerous nature of which is well known to all acquainted with the business. The demand for an invention of this kind is certainly great, as the maimed hands of many persons who are now, or have been, employed on railroads will attest. The invention of Mr. W., if it is found to work, and we don't see why it should not, will entirely do away with this dangerous part of the business of railroading, as by it the coupling adjusts itself immediately upon the cars coming together. We will not pretend to give a description of the invention, although it is a very simple one, and can be applied to all couplings as they are now made, at a cost of from 37½ to 75 cents (at the outside) per car. We understand that it is to have a trial, when, if it meets common expectation, Mr. W. must make something handsome out of it. At all events it reflects credit upon his inventive genius.

MISSES PIC NIC.—We learn that a party of the misses of this place had quite a nice little pic nic, all by themselves, in the grove west of town, on Monday last. That was once the noses of the young would-be-gallants were too short to "come in." We think the young ladies exhibited a little too much modesty in concluding not to send the printers a nice pound cake for fear they would notice their party. Come, misses, you must put away all such foolish notions, and when you have anything good or nice at your little gatherings, always remember the printers and they will say something nice about you. We excuse you this time as it is your first offence.

FINALLY COMMITTED.—Hamilton and Helfright, whom we noticed last week, as having been arrested on the charge of being the persons who broke into the store of Gen. B. F. Bell, at Bell's Mills, last winter, were brought before Esquire Cherry on Thursday last, for a second hearing. One of the railroad tickets was traced to Hamilton, and on the strength of this he and Helfright, who is considered his partner, were remanded to jail to await their trial at the July term.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—We understand that the teachers and scholars connected with the public schools in this place are preparing to give an exhibition about the first of July, at the time of closing the schools. We have no donbt it will be a creditable affair.

IMPORTANT TO DRUGGISTS.—The following section of the new Penal Code, passed by the Legislature last winter, is of great importance to those who deal in drugs of any kind which are used as poisons:

"No apothecary, druggist, or other person shall sell or dispose of by retail, any morphia, strychnia, arsenic, prussic acid, or corrosive sublimate, except upon the prescription of a physician, or on the personal application of some respectable inhabitant of full age, of the town or place in which such sale shall be made. In all cases of such sale the word poison shall be carefully and legibly marked or placed upon the label, package, bottle, or other vessel or thing in which such poison is contained; and when sold or disposed of otherwise than under the prescription of a physician, the apothecary, druggist, or other person selling or disposing of the same, shall note in a register, kept for that purpose, the name and residence of the person to whom such was made, the quantity sold, and date of such sale.

Any person offending herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars."

It will be seen that no sale can be made except upon the prescription of a physician or to an inhabitant of full age, of the town or place in which such sale shall be made; in which latter case the name and residence of the purchaser, the date of the sale, and quantity sold must be kept.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Teachers' Association of this county met in this place on Friday last, and we are sorry that we did not attend, as we learn the proceedings were very interesting. We hear an essay read by Prof. Mitchell complimented very highly, as also that of Mr. Whitington. Their essays, we understand, were requested for publication, but their owners declined giving them, on the ground that so long as they held them they were private property and could be used again, but if given to the public through the newspapers they became public property and were afterwards useless about home. While we are anxious to get hold of good compositions to publish, we are, nevertheless inclined to think that it is sometimes wise and right for persons to withhold essays, sermons, &c., as the authors are thereby saved the time and labor of preparing another should they be suddenly called upon for something of the kind; and many persons excuse themselves from attending meetings where such essays are read, by saying that of course they will be published and we can read them in the paper.

DESTRUCTIVE LAND SLIDE.—A very destructive land slide occurred near Sewickley, yesterday, through which the beautiful residence of Mr. R. H. Davis was rendered almost a total loss. The slide commenced early on Sunday morning, and moving at the rate of four inches an hour, the house was soon effected, and before anything could be done to save it was almost destroyed. Some three hundred men were at work all day on the premises, and but for their efforts the damage would have been much more serious. The building cost some $10,000, and was one of the most elegant structures in that section of the country. It is now untenantable, and so shaken that it cannot be repaired.—Pitts. Chronicle, 4th inst.

BRONCHITIS.—This disease consists in an inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the bronchial tubes, and is generally attended with cough, increased discharge from the throat and air tubes, blueness of the lips and coldness of the extremities from want of a proper circulation of the blood. One of the best remedies for its radical cure is Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup, a remedy prepared by that gentleman at his wholesale drug store, No. 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa. It is put up in bottles at 50 cents and $1 each, and may be had at G. W. Kessler's.

☞ PROF. J. C. SMITH, A. M.: Dear Sir—After a thorough practical test in the counting room of the knowledge acquired at your hands I am perfectly convinced that there is no similar Institution in the United States, that combines so many and such superior advantages as the Iron City College; and I do most heartily commend it as an Institution justly entitled to all the credit it has so universally secured.

SUPT. GAS AND WATER WORKS.—On Friday last, the Board of Managers of the Altoona Gas and Water Works met to examine the proposals for superintending and operating the Works for one year from the 1st of July next, when it was found that the proposal of R. Beachan, of Harrisburg, now connected with the Gas Works in that place, was the most satisfactory and was accepted. Mr. B. comes highly recommended by the Superintendent of the Harrisburg works, as a man fully qualified for the position.

☞ The attention of merchants is directed to the advertisement of W. M. Gormley & Co., which will be found in another column. They are straight-forward, upright, thorough-going business men, prompt in all their transactions and keep a good supply of everything in the grocery and provision line. All orders entrusted to them by our merchants will be filled to their satisfaction at prices as reasonable as those of any other establishment in Pittsburgh. Give them a trial.

S. S. ASSOCIATION.—The Sabbath School Association of Altoona will meet in the Lecture Room of the Lutheran Church to-morrow, (Friday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired, as important business will come before the meeting. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. A. B. Clark and others.

VISITOR.—Within the last couple of weeks we have had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of H. N. Moore, Esq., editor of the Fairfield (Iowa) Jeffersonian, who was on a visit to his friends in this section. He looks like a frontier editor, is a very clever fellow, and represents Iowa as sound for Douglas.

CELEBRATION.—The members of the Catholic Church in this place intend holding a celebration in Beales' Woods, on the 4th of July. An excellent dinner will be served up on the occasion, tickets for which are now out.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—We understand that a new military company was organized in this place on last Saturday evening. Its name, "United States Protectors," was unanimously selected. It has on its roll some 80 or 90 young men. We are unable to give our readers any information concerning the style of uniform to be adopted, but are assured that it will be pleasing to all. At an election for officers, held the evening mentioned, the following military gentlemen were elected:—

Captain—Joseph Pluck.
1st Lieut.—Jeremiah Bloomfield.
2d " —Timothy Dutton, Sr.
3d " —James Bluff.
Corporal—Patrick Tucker, Jr.
Serg't.—John Monroe.

The company intends making its first dress parade on the morning of the glorious Fourth, when our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing their soldier-like bearing and the admirable military precision with which they will perform all their manœuvres under the direction of the well-drilled and disciplined Pluck.

HOLLIDAYSBURG.—A shaft for the new Rolling Mill was cast at the Hollidaysburg Foundry, a few days ago, that weighed 9,660 lbs. It was 15 feet long and 15½ inches in diameter.

The roof of the Gaysport Foundry was slightly damaged by fire on Monday night.

A young man named Dougherty, of Gaysport, had his leg badly crushed by being caught between the bumpers of the cars on the Penn'a R. R., on Wednesday last.

☞ The election for delegates to the People's County Convention will be held on Saturday next, and the Convention on Tuesday next, 12th inst. There are quite a number of aspirants for all the offices to be filled, all of whom are good men. What effect the diversity of opinion entertained by the different wings of the party, in relation to the Presidential candidates, will have upon the nominations, we can not conjecture. Concessions for the sake of harmony should be the order, if success is desired.

THE LATEST NEWS.—H. Fettinger has made arrangements whereby he will hereafter receive the Philadelphia Daily Inquirer, a morning paper, by the Express Train in the morning, thus having it in circulation here as early as it is in the city where it is printed. The Inquirer will contain the news up to as late an hour as the papers heretofore received by the evening mail, thus putting our citizens on an equal footing with the city folks, in reference to late news.

☞ Desirous of closing out my present business for the purpose of engaging in professional pursuits, I now offer my entire stock of Books, Music, &c., for sale at cost. Any one wishing to take my situation and continue the trade will receive liberal offers by making an early application.

THE
ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proofs so strong and direct as to
EXPEL THE DOUBTS
OF ALL.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C. June 24th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road-side, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Office of the Jeffersonian, Philippi, Va., Dec. 12th, 1858.
Dear sir.—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement: I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHNOR.
DR. WOOD: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
S. THALBERG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS, MERCHANTS AND OTHERS.
ORDINANCE NO. 15.

WHEREAS, great inconvenience and serious trouble frequently occur to the citizens of the Borough of Altoona, often ending in vexatious litigation, and in many cases encroachments are made on the streets, lanes and alleys, by those building houses and putting up other improvements. And whereas, complaints have been made to the Town Council by a number of the citizens of said Borough, that obstructions are permitted to exist on the side walks and pavements interfering with pedestrians, and trespassing upon the private rights of individuals, greatly detrimental to their comfort and busines operations, by Merchants and other dealers, and the keepers of Clothing stores, by an improper exposure of their goods, wares and merchandize, in front of their stores, and by putting up signs and awnings too low, across the sidewalks and pavements.

Therefore, Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Altoona, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That hereafter all persons, owners of, or agents for, lots of ground within the limits of said Borough, wishing to put up buildings or improvements of any kind, intending to erect the same up to the line of the sidewalk, pavements or alleys, desiring an outlet for water from cellars, stables, sewers, pumps or hydrants, shall, before breaking ground, apply to the Supervisor, or President of Council, for a regular permit for whatever privileges may be necessary thereto. And in default there of, the Supervisor is hereby instructed, and required, to report the same immediately to the Council, who shall prosecute the person or persons so offending, and on conviction thereof, before the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, the person or persons found guilty shall forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding Ten Dollars for each offence, to be collected as sums of like amount are by law recoverable, for the use of the said Borough.

And further, it is hereby ordained by the authority aforesaid, that hereafter, all persons desiring to erect awnings or put up sign boards, across any of the side walks or pavements of said Borough, shall; previously to the erecting or putting up, apply to the proper officer for a permit; and no awning or sign board, so put up, shall be lower than 10 feet from the surface or level of the sidewalk or pavement, and shall leave the gable ends of all awnings open. And also, the owers and occupants of all awnings or signs now erected or put up, extending across the pavements or sidewalks of said Borough, are hereby required to have the same altered so as to fully meet the requirements of this Ordinance by raising them to the proper height.

And also, any person or persons, company, or society, trading, marketing, or merchandising, or using any of the sidewalks or pavements within the limits of the said Borough, for exhibiting theirs wares and merchandise or otherwise, shall at no time occupy more than five feet of the sidewalk or pavement, and in all cases that portion of the pavement or sidewalk next to their own houses; and every person offending against the provisions of this Ordinance for the space of ten days after being duly notified by the Supervisor, shall, upon conviction thereof before the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, be fined in a sum no exceeding Ten Dollars for every such offence, for the use of the said Borough, to be recovered as debts of a like amount are by law recoverable.

Passed May 10th, 1860—to take effect June 10th, 1860.

BŒRHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE,
And the various affections consequent upon a disordered
STOMACH OR LIVER,
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Bilious and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.
It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.
NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.
READ CAREFULLY!
The Genuine highly concentrated Boerhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.
☞ Beware of Imposition. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.
Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most points.

CONSUMPTION AND ASTHMA CURED.

DR. H. JAMES,

Discovered, while in the West Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. His child was cured, and is now alive and well. Desirous of benefitting his fellow mortals, he will send to those who wish it, the recipe containing full directions for making and successfully using this remedy, free, on receipt of their names with stamp for return postage. When received, take it to G. W. Kessler, Druggist, Altoona. There is not a single symptom of Consumption which it does not at once take hold of and dissipate. Night sweats, nervousness, irritation of the nerves, failure of memory, difficult expectoration, sharp pains in the lungs, sore throat, chilly sensations, nausea at the stomach, inaction of the bowels, wasting away of the muscles. Address O. P. BROWN & CO., 32 and 34 John St., New York.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S
ACACIAN BALSAM,
FOR THE PERMANENT

CURE OF CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS, & GENERAL DEBILITY, &C.

THIS remedy is offered as affording a means of speedy cure for the large number that die annually in our land of that fell scourge, Consumption, to which, unfortunately, so many predisposing causes exist. Youth and age are alike subject to its ravages.

EVERY PERSON

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is subject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably consigns the sufferer to a premature grave. To such, help is at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope,—the harbinger of brighter days,—may be awakened without fear of chilling disappointment. Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACACIAN BALSAM does just what is claimed for it, and may be relied upon by the sick as being the most successful in curing lung and throat disorders, of any remedy known at the present day. The many phases assumed by Consumption justifies the apprehension of those who have reason to fear its approach, either from constitutional or hereditary tendency.

While the discoverer of this remedy does not believe that people should be constantly dosing themselves with medicines

TO PREVENT SICKNESS,

there are many cases where disease is too long allowed to remain unchecked in the system; and a slight cough, regarded at first as simply an annoyance, ceases only with the life of the patient. An impure state of the blood, through debilitation of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or accelerated to a feverish intensity—the heart, liver, and kidneys, separately performing functions of vital necessity to our well-being, are impeded in their regular action—the digestive organs falter in their task, and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mental being is well-nigh ready to sink under the burden of life. The patient so afflicted, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resort to medication, from his thorough disbelief in any prospect of cure. To such of the ACACIAN BALSAM, as thoroughly worthy the confidence of all. Every symptom of Consumption is surely and permanently eradicated by its use. Its effects are none other but strengthening and renovating to the entire system; Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility, are effectually cured by its use. Night Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appetite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Liver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficulty of Breathing—all these affections disappear in an incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acacian Balsam.

I ASK THE TRIAL

It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles, and inflammation. It strengthens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying electricity or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and prostrate body. I needs no lengthy trial to convince any that the ACACIAN BALSAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight-and-forty hours after trial.

Let the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most gratifying character.

The ACACIAN BALSAM is prepared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spared to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age. It may be taken by either sex, of all ages, and at all seasons, with perfect safety; and it is none the less powerful in conquering those diseases which sap the foundation and destroy the lives of so many in our midst. Every family should have it, and regard it as a household treasure.

MOTHERS

In presenting you with DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, we desire to state its superiority over every nostrum that nurse or quack has heretofore offered you.

First. It is the preparation of a regular physician, who is well qualified from much experience in infantile complaints to prescribe for them. Secondly—It is entirely free from paregoric or opiate of any kind, and consequently relieves by removing the suffering of your child, instead of deadening its sensibilities. Thirdly—It is put up with great care, as a comparison of it with any other article for infantile complaints will show; the very roots from which it is distilled being dug from the forests under the direction of Dr. Eaton, many of them by his own hands. Fourthly—It is perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate infant, and is a certain cure and relief in all the following cases, which is its chief merit over every other preparation, viz:—

FOR ALL COMPLAINTS ATTEDING TEETHING; such as DYSENTERY, COLIC, &c., also, for softening the gums and relieving pain. For regulating the Bowels it is unequalled. For Cold in the Head it is a sure relief. For the CROUP, the most fatal and trying of all diseases, it can be relied on with perfect confidence; and being a powerful antispasmodic in all cases of convulsions or fits, we earnestly recommend you to lose no time in procuring it. Lastly—it costs so much more than other preparations of the kind that we cannot afford such long advertisements as can those whose whole expense is their advertising; for the same reason, it commends itself a the most reliable to all mothers. In all cases, the directions wrapped around each bottle must be strictly followed. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

BLOOD FOOD

Dr. Bronson, having been so far reduced by consumption as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years practice—as a last resort conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of Physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this "BLOOD FOOD," from the use of which, Dr. Bronson was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over two thousand consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite or pain in the side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your Sleep is Broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed, or your Organs relaxed, you will find this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is Torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate and bring it into lively and healthy action. In the most inveterate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is always experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints or Weakness, the sufferer after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofulas and other like complaints—Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body and color and beauty to the skin. Physicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success. For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle. Sold by
